

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I have questions about the internship, who do I talk to?

If you would like to ask questions and learn more about Discover Northwest click here.

Who is Discover Northwest for?

Discover Northwest is for students desiring to begin or complete a degree program while gaining vital hands-on ministry experience.

How long is the DNW internship program?

The internship is a two year program following a semester schedule that complements the academic calendar of Life Pacific University and supplements with additional summer intern training events and enhancement opportunities.

Do I have to take college courses to be a part of DNW?

DNW is the college internship program of East Hill Church, and you will need admission into LPU in order to be a student intern at East Hill. Please submit an inquiry form for more information.

How and when can I apply?

We are actively taking applications. The academic application is the requirement for entrance into Life Pacific University. You can apply at LPU here: <https://www.lifepacific.edu/immersivetraining>. Life Pacific will be taking applications until the end of July.

What do I receive when I finish?

You will receive ministry training and leadership development as a student intern at East Hill Church. We will partner with you to DISCOVER your calling either into ministry or the marketplace.

New student interns can complete an AA either in General Studies or Biblical Studies, and then can continue on and complete a BA through LPU.

Transfer/current student interns with enough credits, may be eligible to complete a BA in Organizational Management or Ministry & Leadership through LPU.

Is financial aid or student loans available?

Since Life Pacific University is a fully accredited university, students can apply for federal aid through grants and loans. To apply, fill out the Free

Should I bring a laptop or a desktop computer?

Since our program through LPU will be online, you will need to provide your own laptop or desktop. A Chromebook, netbook, or tablet with a keyboard will be sufficient for your online program.

Is housing available?

Housing will be available. Location to be determined.

Will I need transportation?

If you have transportation, you are encouraged to bring a personal vehicle in order to commute from your residence to the church campus.

Am I able to work while I am at DNW?

There is potential time for students to get a part-time job - about 10-15 hours a week. You will be a full-time student and be completing weekly intern hours in ministry. Any part-time employment would require flexibility and diligent time management.
